

International Airborne Society

1910 Madison Ave Ste 18
Memphis TN 38104 USA

(901) 309-9443

Info@airbornesociety.com www.AirborneSociety.com

Operation "Baltic Thunder"

31 August - 9 September 2010

Take to the skies and join us as we will jump with our paratrooper bretheren of the armed forces of

ESTONIA

&

LATVIA

Included in this Action Packed tour are:

- Hostel accommodations in historic Tallinn, Estonia & Riga, Latvia.
- Luxury bus transportation between Tallinn, Estonia and Riga, Latvia.
- Military oriented sightseeing, and social events with the local Paratroopers.
- Basic Airborne Refresher Ground Training.
- Participation in Airborne Operations with the respective Armed Forces. Planned are two jumps with the D-6 parachute in each country.
- Awarding of the host nations Military Parachutist Badge (with Diploma) to all jumping participants.
- Prop Blast Parties with the host Military in each country.
- Soirée at the "Safe House" of the U.S. Embassy's Marine Security Guards.

This operation will be conducted immediately following the historic Junkers Ju-52 jump in Germany.

Tour Cost for Operation "Baltic Thunder":

Option I:

For individuals who are also registered for the Ju-52 jump. This option does include one additional hotel overnight in Berlin, as well as the airfare from Berlin, Germany to Tallinn, and returning from Riga to Berlin.

US $ 2375.- (Baltic Operation with airfare from Berlin)

+	US $ 875.-	(Ju-52 Operation)
<hr/>
Total	US $ 3250.-

(this does not include any airfare from the U.S. to Germany)

Option II:

With link-up in Tallinn, Estonia, and release in Riga, Latvia.

US$ 1975.-

(this does not include any airfare from the U.S. to the Baltics)

Costs are based on double-room occupancy. Single-room supplement is US$ 450.-

There are only 12 slots available on this operation. Preference will be given to those who are also registered for the Ju-52 jump. Due to intra-european airline requirements immediate registration is required for those also participating in the Ju-52 jump.

Registration Deadline for individuals not participating in the Ju-52 jump is 25 July 2010

Due to the constantly changing trans-atlantic airfares, we are unable to publish any options including airfares from the U.S. Please contact us for information on current trans-atlantic budget fares.

